Dear Doctor;

The set of photo-graphs of the pictures in the Corcoran Art Gallery which you kindly sent to me have, for the most part, been brought by me to this station. They have been framed and hung on the walls of the Residence building, where they are much appreciated.

If you have any new pictures, I shall be glad to receive them, so that I may add them to the series. I do not think I have had anything later than the publications down to 1883. If the "Helping "Hand" has been photographed, I should like very much to have a copy of it.

Yours truly,

Spencer Baird

About the exhibition of a pencil cartoon by Mr. Hubbard, in the Gallery

Rockland,

Received & Ackd July 7. Ans'd July 13/84

Sandy Spring, Mont. Co. Md. July 4th 1884.

My Dear Friend,

The wife of my friend Rev. John Lloyd of Abingdon, Virginia, is the daughter of an artist formerly of some celebrity, Mr Hubard. He was of Scotch origin & married into the Tabb family of Va. He was employed to make several copies of Vandeau's Statue of Washington one of which was for a long time in the Rotunda at the Capitol. While on a visit lately to Mrs. L. I saw a pencil Cartoon of, I think, unusual merit. It is about 18 x 24 in. & represents the contrast in the flesh of the innocent & guilty; as described in Jerrold's Night Thoughts. It is elaborately worked out. The family will not sell it, but it is so liable to injury & destruction where it is, that I suggested its being placed on exhibition in your Gallery where many could enjoy it. Do you not receive pictures in that way? It needs re-framing & cleaning up. With kind regards to Kate

Dear Sir

We are very sorry, but we have to return the bond, which must be signed "Corcoran Gallery of Art" by J.C. Wilson's Asst: Our Custom House Dep't will then allow the case to go forward. But will also require a copy of the bye-laws of the Gallery. authorizing the President's signature. and copy of the minutes of the meeting. which may be furnished Custom House.

With a new Collector it is very difficult to get matters of this kind waived. but we shall advise you directly the Secretary of the Treasury, + telling him to write to the Collector, and enclosing him to act as the bond warrant further formalities.

Yours faithfully
